Sixth Form

Politics Learning Journey KS5

READY STEADY EXAM

A level Exams

How far should state control go?

Socialism

How united are Feminists?

Revision

Civil Rights in the US

Can a third party candidate win?

Pressure groups in the USA

How much influence do lobbyists have?

Feminism

Conservatism

Are people inherently selfish?

Paper 3
Political Theory

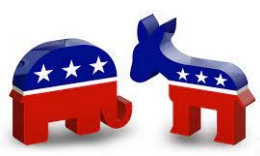

How divided are the Liberals?

Liberalism

The Supreme Court and Civil Rights in the UK

Why is there so little party unity?

Political Parties in the USA

Is the Electoral College still fit for purpose?

The role of the President

What qualities should a President have?

READY STEADY EXAM

Elections in the USA

YEAR 13

YR 12 EXAMS

How different are the UK political parties?

Pressure groups in the UK

UK Political parties and elections

Who really rules in the UK?

The role of the Prime Minister

Should the Westminster system be reformed?

Is Congress the "broken branch"?

Congress and the Legislative

Does the USA need constitutional reform?

The Supreme Court and the Judiciary

Is the Supreme Court too powerful?

Is the US Constitution still fit for purpose?

Should the UK have a codified constitution?

Parliament and its members

Is scrutiny effective?

The Constitution of the UK

PAPER ONE
Politics of the UK

YEAR 12

POLITICS

The Constitution of the USA

PAPER TWO
Politics of the USA