

Home-School Agreement

NHS & BSF

We will make every effort to:

- ensure that your child has the best possible education in a safe, caring environment;
- encourage your child to achieve to the best of their ability;
- provide a balanced curriculum appropriate to your child's needs;
- set high expectations for academic work and behaviour through building good relationships and developing a sense of responsibility;
- provide opportunities for your child to take part in extra-curricular activities and visits;
- provide opportunities for your child to plan for their career and develop the skills needed for adult life;
- keep you informed about your child's progress; this will include parents' and carers' consultation evening, academic tutorials, progress reports and annual reports;
- keep you informed about school activities; this will include the school magazine, OnCampus; updating the website regularly, as well as text messages, letters and emails;
- listen, and where possible, respond to your concerns dealing with issues as efficiently as possible;
- respect each child as an individual;
- contact you if there are concerns about academic work, behaviour, attendance or punctuality;
- communicate, both verbally and in writing, with courtesy.

Miss Ryan, Headteacher

The Parents/Carers

I/We will make every effort to:

- ensure that my child goes to school regularly, on time and wearing the correct school uniform;
- let the school know about any concerns or problems that might affect my child's work or behaviour;
- keep the school up-to-date with changes to address, contact telephone numbers and email addresses;
- ensure that my child goes to school equipped for lessons with a minimum of a pen, pencil, ruler and school books;
- encourage my child to achieve to the best of their ability and plan for a future career;
- attend parent/carers' consultation evenings, any meetings with tutors and play a full part in discussions about my child's progress;
- encourage my child to complete their home learning to the best of their ability;
- check their progress using any login details via EdulinkOne;
- encourage my child to follow our school values of being ready, respectful and safe;
- support the school's policies and co-operate with the school's disciplinary procedures;
- inform the school on the first day of my child's absence;
- communicate, both verbally and in writing, with courtesy.
